DATED: 21st April,2007

P.C.:-

1. This is a notice of motion taken out by the defendant. The learned Counsel appearing for defendant states that the records other than the MICR tapes have been submitted on 6.10.2005 in the Court. The statement is accepted. The notice of motion is granted in terms of prayer clause a (i).

2. The learned Counsel further states that the defendant has filed an affidavit disclosing the reasons why MICR tapes cannot be deposited. The plaintiffs have not filed any reply disputing the averments made in that affidavit, and therefore, accepting those averments at face value, the notice of motion is granted in terms of prayer clause (a)(ii).

The notice of motion is disposed of.
